

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Reflections on Love, Gender, and Sexuality : Perspectives from Classical to Modern Persian Culture Ali-Asghar Seyed-Gohrab	9
Of Earthly and Heavenly	19
The Vale of Soul Making: The Persian Verse Romance from Gurgānī to Jāmī Dick Davis	21
The Earthly Roots of the Heavenly Beloved Ali-Asghar Seyed-Gohrab	35
Ethics of Love, Gender, and Sexuality in Persian Poetry	53
An Emperor Accused of Sexual Transgression? What is Really Happening between Bahram Gur and his Musician Slave Girl? Christine van Ruymbeke	55
The Character of Vis in Gurgānī's Vis-u Rāmīn and The Functioning of Love Mira de Boose	79
Masculinity and Dialogism : Reconsidering Mysticism in Nizāmī's Laylī and Majnūn Allison Kanner-Botan	89
The Many Faces of Humāyūn : Portraying a Chinese Princess in Persian Epic Poetry Christine Kämpfer	111

The Sword of Lovesickness : Exploring Gendered Identities in Feyzī's Nal-u Daman Fatemeh Naghshvarian	129
Estranged Sun? Gurdāfarīd of Firdowsī's Shāh-nāma : A Female Warrior in Pre-Islamic Iran Joanna Szklarz	145
The Psychic-Civic Operability of Early Modern Persian Shahr-āshūb(s) : Emergence of Text through the Mua'mmā(s) of Love and Craft Mahroo Moosavi	157
Modern Gender and Sexuality Revisited	179
Beyond Anachronism : Questioning Modern Gender and Sexuality Language in Classical Persian Literature Mehrdad Alipour	181
Past Heroines, Modern Champions : Gurdāfarīd in the Shāh-nāma and the Woman, Life, Freedom Movement Bregtje T. van der Zaag	207
Woman Life Freedom in the Mirror of Scholarship : Responses from the Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences Pooyan Tamimi Arab	225