

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations	7
List of Contributors	9
Acknowledgements	11
Acronyms and Abbreviations	13

Introduction. South Asia Unbound	15
Elisabeth Leake and Bérénice Guyot-Réchar	15

Part I. (Inter)national Orders and State Futures

Chapter 1. A Thwarted “Westphalian Moment” in South Asia? The Triple Alliance against Tipu Sultan Tanja Bühner	41
--	----

Chapter 2. “Nothing in Common with ‘Indian’ India:” Bhutan and the Cabinet Mission Plan Swati Chawla	61
--	----

Chapter 3. Extra-territorial Self-determination: East African Decolonization and the Indian Annexation of Goa Lydia Walker	83
--	----

Part II. From the Transimperial to the International: Lived Uncertainties

Chapter 4. Battlefields to Borderlands: Rohingyas between Global War and Decolonization Jayita Sarkar	103
---	-----

Chapter 5. Other Partitions: Migrant Geographies and Disconnected Histories between India and Malaya, 1945-1965 Kalyani Ramnath	125
---	-----

Chapter 6. Re-Uniting Split Families: The 1972 Ugandan Asian Refugees and the Internationalization of an Imperial Diaspora Ria Kapoor	145
 Part III. South Asian Roots of the International
Chapter 7. An “Indian Hermes” between Paris and the Pacific: Kalidas Nag, Greater India, and the Quest for a Global Humanism Yorim Spoelder	167
Chapter 8. Fellow Travelers: Global Decolonization and Gandhian Peace Work Carolien Stolte	187
Chapter 9. The Islamist International in Lahore: The Jamaat-i Islami, the Middle East, and the Quest for an Islamic State Simon Wolfgang Fuchs	203
 Part IV. Ambivalences and Sensibilities of Internationalism
Chapter 10. Hindu Nationalism in the International: B.S. Moonje’s Travel Writing at the Round Table Conference Stephen Legg	227
Chapter 11. Culture and Progressivism in Pakistan, ca. 1950s-1970s Ali Raza	247
Chapter 12. Radio’s Internationalism: A View from Modern Afghanistan Mejgan Massoumi	269
Chapter 13. South Asian Diasporic Connections and Afro-Asian Solidarities in the Life of Phyllis Naidoo Annie Devenish	289
 Afterword Srinath Raghavan	 311
Index	317

List of Illustrations

Fig. 4.1.	Battle of Arakan, 1943: A Sampan Convoy on the Mayu River, by Anthony Gross	108
Fig. 4.2.	Map of British and Japanese forces in Cox's Bazaar-Maungdaw area on 17 February 1944	111
Fig. 5.1.	Antonio Cecil Pereira's passport application	129
Fig. 5.2.	Cecil Pereira's home in Thumba, Thiruvananthapuram, in former Travancore	131
Fig. 10.1.	Portrait of Dr. B.S. Moonje at the Indian Round Table Conference Second Session, 1931	232
Fig. 13.1.	Portrait of Phyllis Naidoo	291
Fig. 13.2.	The first nineteen volunteers to take part in the 1946 passive resistance campaign	295
Fig. 13.3.	A family reunited: Phyllis and her husband MD Naidoo with sons Sahdhan and Shah, and daughter Sukhthi facing away from the camera.	301
Fig. 13.4.	Phyllis Naidoo looking out from her window with her three children during her time under house arrest in Durban, 1971.	302