

Table of Contents

List of figures, maps and tables	7
A note to the reader: What is universal about this book?	9
Acknowledgements	11
Abbreviations	13
 Chapter 1. Introduction	 15
 Portraits: Introducing key respondents	 29
 Chapter 2. Ruptures: Traditional authorities, violence, and the state in Western Equatoria (1500s–2014)	 33
 Chapter 3. Movements: Im/mobility, violence, and state control in Western Equatoria (1500s–2014)	 67
 Chapter 4. Grounding conflicts: Land and formalisation in times of post-conflict return in Western Equatoria (2011–2015)	 87
 Chapter 5 Being traditional in mercurial times: Chiefs in Western Equatoria (2005–2016)	 115
 Chapter 6. ‘It has started again’: The eruption of civil war and people’s decisions to stay or go (2015–2017)	 141
 Chapter 7. Encountering the state upon arrival: Aid, papers, and land in Uganda (2015–2019)	 175
 Chapter 8. Displaced traditional authority and the reconstruction of order in Uganda (2016–2019)	 213
 Chapter 9. Overcoming ruptures: The pursuit of future	 255
 Bibliography	 273
Index	297