

Table of Contents

List of Tables, Maps and Figures	7
Acknowledgements	9
PART 1: Mission and Its Historiography	13
Chapter 1. Introduction: The Basel Mission in Nineteenth Century South India Amal Shahid, Ella Daisy Müller, Mukesh Kumar	15
Chapter 2. Interconnected and Multifaceted Approaches to Protestant Mission Histories Felicity Jensz	37
PART 2: The Basel Mission in India and Europe	61
Chapter 3. Christianity for Industry and Industry for Christianity: The Basel Mission in Europe and India, c. 1850–1900 Bernhard C. Schär	63
Chapter 4. A ‘Terrain of Exchange’: The Kanarese Evangelical Mission in the Interwar Years (1918–1928) Philippe Bornet	89
PART 3: The Basel Mission and Caste	117
Chapter 5. Social Engineering in the Praxis of the Basel Mission Jaiprakash Raghaviah	119
Chapter 6. A Photographic Perspective on Recasting the Caste Individuals: An Exploration of the Basel Mission’s Industries in Malabar Chinjumol KR	145

PART 4: Gender and the Basel Mission	171
Chapter 7. Translating Matriliney through the Interpretative Structures of Colonial/Missionary Patriarchy Parinitha Shetty	173
Chapter 8. “So Much Depends on the Proper Preparation of the Bible Women”: The Training Practice of Bible Women of the Basel (Women’s) Mission between 1880–1940 in South India Sandra Langhop	201
PART 5: The Materialities of the Basel Mission	227
Chapter 9. The Basel Mission Collection from India: Colonial Entanglements, Missionary Interpretation and Local Agency Isabella Bozsa	229
Chapter 10. Material Manifestations: Basel Mission Terracotta Tiles and Factories of Mangalore Priya Joseph	257
Afterword: Entangling Histories, Unsettling Legacies Linda Maria Ratschiller Nasim	289
About the contributors	299
Index	303