

Contents

Chapter 1. Environmental Governance and Livelihood (Re)making: Two Sides of the Same Coin? Diana Suhardiman, Jonathan Rigg, and Melissa Marschke	7
Chapter 2. History of Environmental Governance and Postcolonial Politics: The Indonesian Case Farabi Fakh & Bambang Purwanto	25
Chapter 3. Where Does the Boundary Fall? Conservation Assemblages and Their Discontents in a Protected Area, Northern Cambodia Jean-Christophe Diepart, Tim Frewer and Natalia Scurrah	47
Chapter 4. (Re)thinking Environmental Governance in the Changing Climate Context of Northwestern Ghana Charity Osei-Amponsah, Andrew Emmanuel Okem, Julius Nornoo and Felix Puopiel	73
Chapter 5. Grabbing River Rhythms: Fishing Communities and Water Justice in Two Swamps of the Magdalena River Juliana Forigua-Sandoval, Bibiana Duarte-Abadía and Rutgerd Boelens	103
Chapter 6. Prahok Fish Processing: Insights into Marginalised, Female Livelihoods at the Tonlé Sap Lake, Cambodia Colleen Cranmer	125
Chapter 7. The Struggle to Make a Living: How EU IUU Fishing Policy Impoverishes Local Fisheries' Livelihoods in Vietnam Tong Thi Hai Hanh and Alin Kadfak	143
Chapter 8. Livelihood Transitions To and Away from the Coal Economy in India Patrik Oskarsson, Suravee Nayak, Nikas Kindo	165

Chapter 9. Deciding from Far-Away, Implementing without Local Consent: A Historical Perspective on Environmental Governance of the Bengawan Solo River in East Java Adrian Perkasa, Paul Rabé, Akhmad Ryan Pratama	185
Chapter 10. Water Diplomacy and Transboundary Water Governance in the Lower Mekong Basin: Towards Inclusivity? Oliver Hensengerth	211
Chapter 11. Karen Indigenous Approaches to Environmental Governance: Integrating Knowledge, Culture, and Political Agency Diana Suhardiman, Saw Sha Bwe Moo, Saw Paul Sein Twa, Charlotte Clare	233
About the authors	255
Index	261