

Contents

Notes on Transliteration System, Dates and Biographical Information	7
Acknowledgements	9
Introduction	11
The Genre of Hajv ('Satire', 'Mockery', 'Verbal Aggression')	12
The Genre of Hazl ('Witticism', 'Facetiae', 'Bawdy Poetry')	21
Historical Background	28
Poetic Forms	31
Tradition of Studies	32
Authors and Texts	33
CHAPTER 1 – Invective Poetry	37
Physical Images	37
Actions Involving the Victims of Satire	41
Imprecatory Poetry	44
Composite Poetry	45
CHAPTER 2 – Satirical Poetry	51
Patrons and Ruling Classes	51
Poets	65
Court Milieu	83
Religious Context	89
Women as Habitual Subject for Satire	108
Satirising Members of a Family	113
Peoples and Towns	116
Addressees with no Social Labels	118
Behaviour and Customs	127

CHAPTER 3 – Burlesque Poetry	145
Form and Content	145
Replies to Poems	154
Biographies of the Poets	165
Glossary of Key Literary Terms	187
Notes	191
Bibliography	213
Index of Names, Places and Works	221