

Contents

Preface 9

Acknowledgements 10

Studies on Persian Passion Play 11

Translations in European languages 19

Introduction 23

A Short History of Ta'ziya 23

The Movements after 'Āšūrā and the Development of Ta'ziya 24

Late Medieval and Modern Ta'ziya 26

The Devotional Contents of Ta'ziya 28

Oral Tradition in Ta'ziya Texts 28

Ta'ziya Players and Devices 34

Audience Participation in the Ta'ziya 35

Zeynab in Ta'ziya 37

'Āšūrā, the Martyrdom of Imām Ḥuseyn 43

A Crisis of Succession 43

The Martyrdom of Imām Ḥuseyn 44

The Concept of Imāma in Shiite Tradition 45

Martyrdom (Šahādat) 47

Eschatology 53

Islamic Eschatology 53

Eschatology in the Ta'ziya Texts 55

The Ta'ziya Texts 57

Time and Setting as the Background of the Events 59

The Theme of Day 60

The Theme of Night 61

Settings in Ta'ziya 63

Doctrines and Philosophy in Ta'ziya 67

The Legitimacy of Ta'ziya 70

Zeynab in the Passion Play 73

Veiling and its Supporters in the Ta'ziya Texts 73

Zeynab as a Role Model for Iranian Women 75

 Zeynab's Sermons 76

 Zeynab, Justice and Destiny 77

 Zeynab Inspired 79

 Zeynab's Spiritual Power 80

 Zeynab the Leader 81

 Zeynab as Saviour of the Shiite Tradition and the Line of Imāms 84

 Zeynab the Generous 85

Zeynab and the Protagonists 86

 Zeynab and Imām Ḥuseyn 86

Zeynab and Sakina 88

 Zeynab as Mother 88

 Zeynab as Defender 91

Zeynab and the Mother of Qāsem 92

Zeynab and the Antagonists 92

 Zeynab and Yazid 92

 Zeynab and Šemr 94

 Zeynab and Ibn al-Ziyād 96

The Transformation of History 101

Pre-Islamic Iranian Elements in the Ta'ziya Texts 103

Conclusion 105

Glossary: The Ta'ziya of the Damascus Bazaar 109

The Ta'ziya of the Damascus Bazaar 112

Bibliography 205

Index 213