

Table of Contents

List of Figures	7
List of Tables	8
Rewriting East Asia: No Victors, No Vanquished Catherine S. Chan and Tsang Wing Ma	9
Part I. Challenges to Central Narratives in Ancient China
Chapter 1. The Failure of Abdication as a Regular Method of Monarchic Power Succession: A Study of the Tang Yu zhi dao Manuscript Hin Ming Frankie Chik	23
Chapter 2. The Monumentalisation of Communal Memories in Eastern Han China, 25–220 CE Chun Fung Tong	39
Chapter 3. Commemorating the Dead for the Living: Two Eastern Han (25 – 220 CE) Stelae from Southwest China Hajni Elias	77
Part II. Informal Sino-Japanese Interaction in Medieval East Asia
Chapter 4. Chinese Treasures Buried in Private Japanese Libraries: Popular Confucian Works Known as Accounts of Filial Children Keith N. Knapp	105
Chapter 5. Sino-Japanese Exchanges during a Tribute Hiatus: Sources from the Buddhist Archives Yiwen Li	135

Part III. East Asia between East-West Encounters

Chapter 6. “Boys,” “Mandarins,” and “Coolies”: Searching for Hong Kong’s Chinese Community in the Colonial Archive 155
Thomas M. Larkin

Chapter 7. Uncommon Sources on an Uncommon Life: Cantonese Opera Music Master Wong Toa (1914-2015) 179
Wing Chung Ng

Part IV. Global Patterns in Contemporary Southern China

Chapter 8. Revisiting Cold War Hong Kong: Chinese Tailors, American Servicemen, and Suit-Making Experiences, 1950-1980 203
Katon Lee

Chapter 9. The Orient is Hong Kong? Cultural Representations of Hong Kong in Tourism Materials and the Missing Voices of the Tourists 221
Lok-yin Law

Chapter 10. What Joss-Stick Community? Issues in the Inventory and Interpretation of Intangible Cultural Heritage in Macau 243
Catherine S. Chan

Contributors 259

Index 261