

Contents

Preface	9
Dutch Colonial Slavery and Its Afterlives: Introduction Rose Mary Allen, Esther Captain, Matthias van Rossum, Urwin Vyent	11
Section 1
Current Issues	21
1. Dutch Academia and Government on Slavery and Its Afterlives Alex van Stipriaan	23
2. A Crime Against Humanity: Local Dutch Politicians and Mayors Nancy Jouwe	37
Research Method: Digital Humanities Margo Groenewoud	48
3. The Topic of Slavery in Dutch Education Tom van der Geugten	51
4. Colonialism and Slavery in Education: The Dutch Caribbean and Indonesia Luc Alofs, Edu Dumasy, Kenny Meyers, and Elviera Sandie	65
Interviews: Multiperspectivity in the Public Debate on Slavery Myrthe Kraaijenoord and Eva Thielen	72
5. The Commemoration and Afterlives of Slavery in the Netherlands Markus Balkenhol	85
The Golden Coach Annemarie de Wildt	94
6. A Perspective on Reparations and Transformative Justice Nicole Immler	99
Research Method: Oral History Rose Mary Allen	109

Section 2
Slavery & Its Abolitions and Afterlives	113
7. The Winding Path from Slavery to “Free” Labor Ellen Klinkers	115
Research Method: Archaeology	126
Felicia Fricke
8. Dutch Atlantic Chattel Slavery and Its Legacies Kwame Nimako	131
9. Dutch Politics and Slavery in the Nineteenth Century Lauren Lauret	139
10. Forced Relocation and Illegal Slave Trading After Abolition Ulbe Bosma	151
Research Method: Digitizing Slave Registers	161
Coen van Galen
11. Slavery, Colonialism, and the Financial Sector Pepijn Brandon	165
12. Colonial Unfree Labor in the Nineteenth-Century Dutch East Indies Jan Breman	175
Charged Colonial Past	185
Anne-Marieke van Schaik
13. Languages and Literatures of the Former Dutch Colonies Michiel van Kempen	189
Research Method: Slavery and Visual Sources	199
Caroline Drieënhuizen
14. “Sometimes a Moor next to Virgins”: The Colonial World Order in Dutch Art Valika Smeulders	203
Slavery in the Netherlands?	218
Mark Ponte

Section 3

Dutch Colonial Slavery Worldwide

223

15. Commodity, Forced Labor, and Rebellion: On Slavery and Post-Slavery in the Dutch Caribbean Islands 225
Charles do Rego
16. From Suffering and Resistance to Resilience: Slavery in Suriname 237
Helmut Gezius
Traces of Slavery in Foreign Archives 248
Ramona Negrón
17. Colonialism, Slavery, and the Slave Trade in Berbice, Demerara, and Essequibo 251
Marjoleine Kars
18. Slavery in Dutch North America 263
Andrea Mosterman
19. Dutch Brazil from 1630 to 1654 273
Erik Odegard
The Dutch in Atlantic Africa Prior to 1800: Past, Present, and Future 283
Filipa Ribeiro da Silva
Black Hollanders 285
Martin Bossenbroek
Tipping Point: 1873 287
Martin Bossenbroek
20. "I do not want to be silent": Slavery and Colonialism in South Africa and the Southwest Indian Ocean 291
Kate Ekama
Court Cases as a Source 300
Sophie Rose
21. Dutch Slavery in South Asia 303
Titas Chakraborty
22. Slavery in Colonial Indonesia 315
Alicia Schrikker

Section 4
Early Formation of Slavery and Colonialism	327
23. State-Sanctioned Slavery: The States General from 1581 to 1796	329
Arthur Weststeijn
The Colonial History of the Provinces and Admiralties	339
Gerhard de Kok
24. A Forgotten Page in History? The Southern Netherlands' Early Participation in Slavery	343
Jeroen Puttevils
25. Private Interests in the Policies of Slavery and Colonial Expansion	355
Joris van den Tol
Colonial Expansion and the Dutch State	363
Myrthe Kraaijenoord
26. The Entanglement of Colonialism and Local Society: The Sephardim in Curaçao	369
Jeanne Henriquez
27. "Clearly Counter to the Spirit of Christianity"? The Church in the History of Dutch Slavery	379
Martijn Stoutjesdijk
Missionary Work in the Dutch Colonies: More than Evangelism and "Civilization"	389
Geertje Mak and Marit Monteiro
28. The Economic and Social Impact of Dutch Colonial Slavery	393
Matthias van Rossum
The Colonial Collections of Stadtholders William IV and William V	405
Marie Christine van der Sman
29. The Princes of Orange and Their Colonial Profits	409
Raymund Schütz
Dutch Colonial Slavery and Its Afterlives: Findings	423
Rose Mary Allen, Esther Captain, Matthias van Rossum, and Urwin Vyent
Acknowledgments	445
Bibliography	447
Archival Sources	467
Illustration Credits	471
About the Authors	473
Index	483