

Table of Contents

Chapter 1. Introduction: Restaging the PKI within the broader Indonesian Left
Lin Hongxuan, Klaas Stutje, and Rianne Subijanto

Chapter 2. Saminism and the spectre of anarchism in the Netherlands
Indies, 1906–1926
Klaas Stutje

Chapter 3. Women in Motion: How Perempoean Kromo Transformed the Red Movement in the 1920s
Rianne Subijanto

Chapter 4. Merantau in Solitude: Tan Malaka's Exile in China, 1927–1936
Kankan Xie

Chapter 5. Indonesian Marxism outside the PKI: The Political Evolution of Roestam Effendi
Lin Hongxuan

Chapter 6. Socialist Culture and Transnational Anti-Imperialist Solidarity:
Lekra Activism in the Afro-Asian Writers' Movement
Wildan Sena Utama

Chapter 7. Explaining the PKI's Dark Defeat of 1965–1966
John Roosa

Chapter 8. Dutch views on the rise and destruction of the PKI
Alex de Jong

Chapter 9. Researching the History of Gerwani under New Order Restrictions
Saskia E. Wieringa

Chapter 10. Archival Custody and Hidden Narratives: Problems of Activating the Indonesian Left Archives in the Netherlands
Rika Theo

About the contributors

Index